OPPORTUNITY.

"They do me wrong who say I come no more.
When once I kneel and fall to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win."

"Will not for perished chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;
Each night I turn the records of the day—
At sunrise every soul is born again."

"When down in mire, wring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say 'I can';
No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be again a man."

"Art thou a mourner? Rise thee from thy spell,
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven.
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from Hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to Heaven."

For Miss Houghland.

Miss Neil Melvin was hostess last evening in her home on South Elmwood, when she entertained a group of friends with an informal, pre-party party in compliment to Miss Eva Houghland, January's bride-elect. A pleasant feature of the evening was the surprise china shower with which Miss Houghland's friends honored her. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Dinner Party.

Miss Myra Cogswell was hostess last evening to a dozen intimate friends, when she entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner at Hotel Tulsa. Pink and white were the predominating colors. Clusters of flowers in these colors decorated the center of the table, and at each guest's place was a carved bouquet of sweet peas. A several course dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Barnes of 561 South Sixth street announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Martha to Mr. Elson K. Bixby of Muskogee, Okla. Miss Barnes was born in Grand Forks and here has grown to womanhood. She is a graduate of the Grand Forks high school and attended the University of North Dakota, where she was a member of the Alpha Phi sorority. Mr. Bixby is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Tams Bixby, formerly of Red Wing and St. Paul, Minn., and is managing editor of the Muskogee Daily Phoenix. He was graduated from Shattuck school, Fairbault, Minn., and later became a student at the University of Minnesota. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. The above item, which was taken from the Grand Forks (N. D.) Herald, will be of interest to many Tulsa people, as Mr. Bixby is well known in this city.

The Twentieth Century club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. T. Gurd, 1305 South Baltimore. Mrs. Goley opened the meeting with one of Carrie Jacobs Bond's songs. Mrs. Lewis Hoffman then reported on what the club did for the poor on Christmas. Mrs. Fred Bostaph gave an excellent book review of "Les Misérables," followed by a round table discussion. Mrs. R. V. Smith of the same book. In a paper on "English Art" Mrs. James Dicks discussed Turner, Reynolds and Gainsborough. To make the paper more interesting prints of the pictures discussed were passed among the members. Mrs. Hoffman reviewed Mrs. Humphrey Ward's book, "The Testing of Diana Mauley." Work for the coming year was discussed, but nothing was definitely decided. At the close of the session the hostess served a New Year's cup of tea.

The Ruskin Art club met in the home of Mrs. J. H. McBurney Monday afternoon and enjoyed the following program: Leader, Mrs. Walker. Responses, Beautiful American Miniatures. Critique of York's Collection, Mrs. J. R. Cole, Round table.

Mr. Ralph Maxwell Darnell returned yesterday from Wichita Falls, Texas, where he and Mrs. Darnell have been spending the holidays with Mr. Darnell's mother, Mrs. Darnell and little son, Ralph Maxwell, Jr., will not return to Tulsa until after.

The Misses Cecelia Fitzpatrick, Biela Seifert and Betsy Seifert returned to Guthrie yesterday after spending the holidays at their homes in Tulsa. The young ladies are students of St. Joseph convent in Guthrie.

The Ladies' Missionary society of Thier Memorial church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church. All members are urged to be present as a new president will be elected.

The Missionary society of the Boston Avenue Methodist church will meet in business session Thursday afternoon in the church. This is the first meeting in the new year and all the ladies are urged to attend.

Mrs. Don Hagler and two children, Margaret and Jenn, returned last evening to their home in Denver. Col. Mrs. Hagler and children spent the holidays with Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hagler of this city.

Mr. Jack Sanford will return tonight to Westworth military academy at Lexington, Mo., after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Sanford, of 1215 South Carson avenue.

The regular monthly missionary meeting of the ladies' circle of Emmanuel Baptist church will be held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. D. B. Kennedy, 1431 East Third street.

Mr. Lloyd C. Brush, who is principal of Woodlawn school at Sapulpa, returned to resume his duties after having spent the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. W. B. Brush.

The Lady Macabees announce a card party for Friday afternoon at the new Knights of Columbus hall on South Boulder avenue. All Macabees and their friends are cordially invited.

Miss Mary Smith returned last evening to her home in Sapulpa. Miss Smith was a guest for several days in the Delaney home on South Boulder.

Mrs. Thomas J. Walsh of 1167 South Cheyenne avenue has as her guest her niece, Miss Kathleen Walsh of Bartlesville.

Miss Lorene Trush, who is teaching in the Mannford schools, also returned to her work after a delightful vacation visit with home-folk.

The luncheon at which Mrs. John Carson was to have been hostess at Teacup Inn on Monday afternoon, has been indefinitely postponed.

The regular meeting of the Patrons and Teachers association of Horace Mann school will be held in the kindergarten room on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

Miss Sarah Barling, who has been the guest of Miss Edith Lynn of 1601 South Galeson the past week, returned yesterday to her home in Muskogee.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, sneezing, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply little of the fragrant, aniseed, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

Wells at her home, 1217 South Boston avenue.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mayo, 1415 South Cheyenne, at 9:30 o'clock last evening. The baby has been christened C. A. Mayo Jr.

Misses Bessie Cremin and Miriam Murphy returned to Columbia, Mo., Monday night, where they are attending Christian college.

Dr. J. M. Temples will return this morning from Georgia, where he spent the Christmas holidays with his father.

Mrs. G. H. Dietrich will be hostess Wednesday evening to the Nola club at her home on Lansing avenue.

Mrs. Lee Clinton spent the day yesterday at Skiatook visiting her sister, Mrs. O'Brien.

Mrs. J. D. Mills and daughter Leona went to Kansas City yesterday to shop and to visit relatives.

Mr. Max Munder returned last evening from Fort Smith, Ark., after spending the holidays with home-folk.

TAFT SAYS TRUST LAW NOT VIOLATED

New Haven Defense Counsel Emphasizes Opinion of Former President.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—William Howard Taft, then president of the United States, and George H. Wickersham, at that time attorney-general, believed the New York, New Haven & Hartford directorate had not violated the Sherman anti-trust act. This contention was made today by Richard V. Lindabury, counsel for the defense in the trial of eleven former directors of the road for alleged violation of the Sherman law, as a reason why the defendant should be declared not guilty.

This contention was based on the fact that Wickersham was a "great attorney-general, a great lawyer," said Mr. Lindabury, "but back of him was a greater lawyer, and the man who was responsible for Wickersham's action was William H. Taft, the president of the United States. If there is or was at that time an expert on the Sherman law, it was Mr. Taft and here you have after an investigation of the New Haven, the fact that they were satisfied that there had not been a violation of the Sherman law. This solemn judgment ought to be sufficient for this jury."

Mr. Lindabury laid emphasis on the legal sanction that had been given to the New Haven case, both by federal and state authorities, and on the testimony that showed that the directors had been given legal advice that they were not violating the law. Consistent violation of the law, the government had to show before the jury could convict, he said.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ATTEND FUNERAL

M. L. Lockwood, Oil Magnate, Was Buried With Appropriate Ceremonies Yesterday.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon for M. L. Lockwood, former state senator of Pennsylvania, and leading oil producer, who died at his home, 1479 South Cheyenne avenue, Sunday morning. Relatives and friends from many states attended the services.

The services were conducted by the Rev. S. R. Gordon at the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A special musical program was rendered. A quartet consisting of Mrs. J. H. Riedemann, Mrs. Ora L. Frost, Robert Boice Carson and W. R. Guiberson sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "One Swallow Sooths a Thousand." Mrs. Ora L. Frost sang "At the End of a Perfect Day."

The local commandery of Knights Templar had charge of the services at Oaklawn cemetery where Senator Lockwood was laid beside his wife, who died less than a year ago. The following Sir Knights acted as pallbearers: A. A. Small, John Rooney, D. D. Wurtsberger, H. Steinberger, M. Marshall and A. E. Anderson.

CONGRESS THANKS FORD FOR MISSION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Hundreds of measures introduced when congress reconvened today inclined bills or resolutions to extend the thanks of congress to Henry Ford for his peace mission, to prevent clearance from American ports of ships carrying both passengers and munition of war, to establish a United States mission for enduring peace which might act as intermediary between warring nations and to ask President Wilson for names of disloyal naturalized citizens referred to in the presi-

ROAD SUPERVISORS WERE APPOINTED

County Commissioners Concluded Monthly Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

The county commissioners wound up their regular meeting late yesterday afternoon by appointing twelve township road supervisors who will serve for the ensuing year and have charge of the road work in their respective townships.

The following list of appointments was made: H. H. Stone, Glenpool; W. M. Sanders, Bixby; G. A. Snyder, Jenks; Abe Hays, Willow Springs; David Tiller, Tulsa; G. M. Burton, Pryor; D. S. Johnson, Lenape; John Hall, Wekiwa; M. C. Cook, Red Fork; Ed Holm, Skiatook; Bert Shaw, Owasso; J. E. Shaw, Dawson.

Hickory township now has a constable for the first time. The commissioners created the office yesterday and appointed W. E. Pinton to serve. There has never been sufficient business before to warrant the appointment of a constable.

J. M. Stirling was appointed justice of the peace of Skiatook to succeed J. H. Sanders, who resigned the office following accusations made against him by the grand jury and asking his resignation. It was not necessary to appoint a town marshal as the commissioners of the town will supply the man to succeed J. B. Ellis, who resigned when accused.

During the morning the commissioners appointed James V. Patton to act as sheriff during such time as Sheriff Woolley may be suspended, to become effective at once. Patton's bond was approved and he was sworn in.

Highly enforce the prohibitory law. Similar instructions had frequently been issued before, but apparently had not been carried out with the result that Commissioner Quinn emphatically explained several days ago that all officers who fail in their duty can expect nothing but summary dismissal from the city's employ.

Must Enforce the Law.

"All members of the police department are expected to enforce the law," said Commissioner Quinn last night. "If they fail in this duty they will have only themselves to blame for dismissal. I have instructed the department, through their chief, to do everything possible to carry out the provisions of the law, and if they have failed in this duty, the head of the department is to blame."

"I have been reasonably sure that there has been no bootlegging in this city for several months. If I am mistaken, the blame is elsewhere than with the city commissioners. However, recently I was apprised of the fact that stimulants were being sold in the lower section of the city, and it is my intention to put a stop to it, even though it becomes necessary to discharge and replace all patrolmen and detectives."

Colonel Quinn also is certain there has been no open gambling in Tulsa in several months. His men have been busy in suppressing evil of this kind and have enjoyed unusual success. The recognized gambling places have been visited and their various devices destroyed, since when there has been practically no gambling in the city.

Force can do little effect, as practically all members of the police force are aware that gambling halls and bootlegging establishments are things of the past so far as Tulsa is concerned, nor is there any probability of a ready resumption of this illegal traffic as long as it is within the power of the police department, under the supervision of Colonel Quinn, to suppress it.

Woolley Standing Pat on His Rights

Recognized and acting sheriff of Tulsa county, Patton failed to take over the office, however, and affairs were conducted by Sheriff Woolley throughout the day.

Will Stand "Pat."

When informed of the action of the commissioners, Woolley declared he would not give up the office. "I was elected by the people and I'm going to stay right on the job until I'm proven guilty of these charges," he said.

"I refuse to give up the office under any consideration and I'd order anybody out who came here to take it over. My deputies and the people are for me in this action, and I'm not afraid of anything or anybody."

When The World called Patton by phone yesterday it was he was ill. He came to the phone later, however, and declared he was suffering from a gripe.

"When are you going to take over the sheriff's office?" was asked.

"Just as soon as I am able to go down there," he replied.

"Do you intend to assume new duties tomorrow?"

"If I feel better."

"Will you appoint your own deputies?"

"I can't say to that. I'll have to wait until I get down to the office and see how things are."

"You will make every effort to employ the deputies now sworn in though, won't you?"

"I certainly will," was the reply.

Deputies Are Loyal.

Sheriff Woolley's deputies said yesterday they would stand by him and would refuse to take orders from any one other than him.

"We're going to do just what Jim does," declared one of the men. "He's been square with us and he's been square in the office and we're with him, no matter what comes. Friends of thirty years' standing have rallied to his support and will stand by him."

Woolley has retained the law firm of Maran & Moss to represent him. They filed a motion yesterday in the district court, asking that the suspension order be lifted for the reason that the facts cannot be sufficient to warrant the suspension.

"Sheriff Woolley and undersheriff Carl Lewis, together with the deputy sheriffs, have entire charge of the sheriff's office, all of the books and the county jail," said Attorney H. B. Martin last night. "Whether the courts refuse to recognize this fact or not is immaterial, for attorneys can arrange to see that all processes are given into their hands for serving."

"The statement made yesterday that Carl Lewis would serve under the newly appointed sheriff as undersheriff is erroneous. Lewis is serving in that capacity under Sheriff Woolley and will retain the place."

The county commissioners said yesterday that Patton would probably take over the office this morning. Woolley is just as firm in saying that he will not give it up to anyone and
